Our TRUST Curriculum Principles

A Kaleidoscope Schools curriculum has been designed to enable children to develop wide knowledge/ skills and become well rounded and confident individuals who are curious and want to learn. Schools design and develop their own curriculums but encapsulate the following which are linked to the Kaleidoscope 5C's.

Intent

Becket and Hutton's curriculum for Religious Education (RE) helps children explore big questions about life, faith, and what it means to be human. We follow the guidance of the Bath and Wells Diocese and the National Curriculum to make sure our teaching is thoughtful, inclusive, and inspiring.

Our aim is to:

- Help children learn about Christianity and other world religions in a respectful and engaging way.
- Encourage children to ask questions, think deeply, and share their own ideas and beliefs.
- Support children to grow in kindness, respect, and understanding of others.
- Give children the chance to reflect on their own values and how they can make a positive difference in the world.
- Celebrate the diversity of beliefs in our school, community, and beyond, including Humanism.
- RE at our school is creative, fun, and meaningful. It helps children develop their thinking, their sense of identity, and their understanding of the world around them.

Implementation

At our school, RE is taught through a carefully planned curriculum RE syllabus. We make sure lessons are age-appropriate, engaging, and meaningful for all children. We implement our RE curriculum by:

- Teaching weekly RE lessons that explore Christianity and other world faiths through stories, celebrations, symbols, and key beliefs.
- Using a variety of teaching methods, including drama, art, music, discussion, and visits to places of worship, to bring learning to life.
- Encouraging children to ask questions, share their thoughts, and listen respectfully to others.
- Linking RE to our school values and wider curriculum, helping children make connections between what they learn and their own lives.
- Providing opportunities for reflection and spiritual development, both in lessons and through collective worship.
- Ensuring teachers have access to high-quality resources and training, supported by the Diocese and local networks.
- RE is taught as a core subject in our Church school, and we aim to make it a subject that inspires curiosity, respect, and a deeper understanding of the world.
